A Brief History Of KVSC's Trivia Marathon

Trivia Weekend was created in 1980 to counteract the cabin fever inherent to Minnesota winters, and the contest premiered with 20 teams. In 2023, Trivia Weekend attracted 50 teams, many of them participating via the internet from various locations across the Midwest and globally. As the weekend has grown in popularity, so has its organizational sophistication. KVSC has more than 200 volunteers working toward the success of the annual station event. In addition, more than 50 St.Cloud businesses give their support with donations of food, prizes, and funding.

We wish your team the best of luck in 2024!

RULES & REGULATIONS

1. In 2024, there will be nine questions per hour. Speed rounds and other fun scoring options may be implemented. Question point values can range from 10-250 points.

Each team that reports the correct answer to the Trivia Hotline in the allotted time is awarded the question's point value. Teams can keep guessing on questions as long as they are OPEN. When KVSC CLOSES a question, guesses are no longer accepted. Note: This may mean your team may be on the phone with a volunteer when the question closes. If so, you will not be able to answer the question.

2. Teams are allowed to make two guesses per call for up to TWO open questions. Teams guess on open questions and are told: CORRECT (and given points), WRONG, or INCOMPLETE. No clues are given for INCOMPLETE guesses. The phone bank will not tell you which part of your guess is incomplete. Keep calling back with more guesses before the question closes!

3. The Information/Repeat Question support line will NOT spell out common words. For example, if a question asks about " The Tracey Ullman Show," we will not spell the name "Tracey." On-air hosts and phone bank volunteers will only spell out words that are deemed helpful by the trivia writing team.

4. AVOID PHONE BANK JAM! You must practice team restraint. There is a MAXIMUM of two simultaneous phone calls to our hotline from your team. We monitor how frequently each team contacts our phone bank.

5. Teams may not assist each other in any way, including trading answers. Violations will result in contest disqualification. KVSC resources or personnel cannot be used as sources.

6. Members of teams are not allowed on the KVSC premises during Trivia Weekend. Also, teams may not intentionally try to sabotage another team by falsely representing them to KVSC staff, trivia writers, scorekeepers, and phone bank workers. Teams face forfeiture for violating these rules.

7. All decisions made by station management and trivia writers are final.

8. Scoring and question disputes for most questions are entertained for TWO HOURS ONLY following a reported discrepancy. If you dispute a question, internet sources are treated as a lowest priority.

9. Your team HQ will be contacted Friday afternoon of Trivia Weekend to assign you a team number and other data. Use only your assigned team number ALL weekend to identify your guesses and answers with the TRIVIA HOTLINE and dispute lines.

10. The team with the most points at 7 p.m. Sunday is the overall winner! Division I, II, and III winners will be recognized at the awards ceremony. Note, you may call the point/general info line to confirm your scores until the second to last hour of the contest.
